CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest bidder, if in due time, to be the purchaser; but subject to the Auctioneer reserving the right of refusing the bidding of any person. Should any dispute arise between two or more approved bidders or between the Auctioneer and any approved bidder the lot or lots in dispute to be put up again or not at the discretion of the Auctioneer. The vendors reserve the right to bid and withdraw any lot previously or at the time of sale.

II. No person to advance less than 1s. at each bidding; above five pounds, 5s.; and so on in proportion; nor shall such bidding be retracted.

III. The purchasers are to pay down immediately a deposit of five shillings in the pound, or such other sum as the Auctioneer may name in part payment (each deposit to be applicable to any lot or lots purchased), and to give in their names and places of abode when required; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be at the disposal of the Auctioneer.

IV. The lots to be taken away with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description, at the purchaser's expense and risk, before 5 o'clock the day after the Sale and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid before delivery; in cases where one buyer purchases more than one lot, the whole of the amount of the lots purchased is to be paid before any one lot is delivered, and no person is entitled to anything not described in the lots. No allowance whatsoever will be made for errors in description or quantity, but the lots are to be cleared as shown at the sale.

V. All lots left after the specified time will be entirely at purchaser's risk, and will be liable to any expenses that may arise from their not having been cleared in accordance with the fourth condition.

VI. The purchasers to be answerable for all damage they may do to any lots, or to the premises in taking down or removing their respective lots, and to properly repair the same before the lots are removed from the premises.

VII. Inasmuch as the Auctioneers act only as agents for the vendor or vendors, they shall not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of either purchaser or vendor.

VIII. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited shall be forfeited; the lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold, either by public sale or private contract, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages, but any surplus that may arise therefrom shall belong solely to the vendors.

LASTLY.—The Auctioneer to be the sole Arbitrator in every matter of dispute.

Cheques cannot be taken in payment of goods bought
